Welcome letter

Dear Friends and Colleagues,

It is with sincere pleasure that I present to you the program of the 23rd National Congress of the Italian Academy of Orthodontics, which will be held at the Palacongressi in Rimini on April 17–18 2026, and will be entitled “The Aesthetic Enhancement of Orthodontic Treatment.”

I chose facial and smile aesthetics as the theme of our congress because today, more than ever, they are at the center of our patients' expectations and therefore represent one of the most fascinating and complex challenges for the modern orthodontist.

In defining the scientific program, the main objective was to explore, from an interdisciplinary perspective, how science—namely rationality—and art—that is, the individual talents of each of us—can merge to achieve excellence in aesthetic outcomes.

During the congress sessions, we will range from facial analysis to the management of the smile and soft tissues, from the integration of orthodontics with surgery and aesthetic medicine to new digital frontiers, outlining a scientific pathway that will highlight how Orthodontics can be at the heart of a true project aimed at shaping the beauty of a face and a smile, while respecting the identity and uniqueness of each patient.

The speakers who will take turns on stage, all authoritative and distinguished, will share with us clinical experiences, innovative protocols, and reflections on the evolution of aesthetics in orthodontics and in their respective fields. I have asked each of them to give a “didactic” approach to their presentation, also for the benefit of younger participants, who represent the future of the Academy and of Orthodontics.

I am confident that, thanks also to the spirit of friendship that characterizes our congresses, we will enjoy a rewarding educational experience and a source of inspiration for all of us.
